

Co-Creating Emotional Experiences Within Interpreting Process

CEUs: 0.2 PS CEUs

Description:

Discover the way we can co-create emotional experiences to transform the interpreting experience and enhance human connections. In this interactive 2 hour virtual workshop, we'll engage in discussions, reflections, and real-world applications to gain insight into managing reactions mindfully, tuning into inner wisdom, and profoundly impacting outer lives through heartfelt presence. Come ready to look inward as we co-create a space for collective growth.

Presenter – Sarah Wheeler, M.Ed., M.S.

Sarah Wheeler is a highly accomplished freelance ASL/English interpreter, esteemed educator, author, and dedicated researcher with a remarkable track record of over 16 years in the industry. Recognized for her expertise, Sarah has been invited to present on ASL/English interpreting topics at national and international conferences. With a distinguished background serving in the Air Force, Sarah holds a B.A. in Business Management, a Certificate in Nonprofit Management, an M.Ed in Interpreter Pedagogy, and a Master's in General Psychology. Her academic pursuits have given her a comprehensive understanding of the intricacies of effective communication and emotional intelligence in interpreting. Passionate about fostering genuine collaboration between Deaf and hearing communities, Sarah's work promotes culturally responsive teaching practices for interpreters. She remains committed to advancing the field through her research, which focuses on enhancing communication and strengthening connections between diverse communities.

Date: Tuesday, January 23, 2024

Time: 6:00pm – 8:00pm (Eastern Time)

Cost: $10 for NCRID members

Address: Zoom

$20 for non-members

Free for NCRID Student Members

Language of Presentation: Signed ASL - This workshop will not have English Interpretation

For Accommodations: Please email NCRID Foothills Regional Rep for any accommodation requests at foothillsncriid@gmail.com before January 9, 2024.

Target Audience: This interactive workshop is designed for sign language interpreters at all levels of experience, from students to seasoned professionals. It will also benefit Deaf and hard of hearing individuals who utilize interpreters, providing insight into the emotional intelligence competencies that allow for deeply connected interpreting experiences.

Refund and Cancellation Policy: All refund requests must be made in writing; the requests should be emailed to NCRID Foothills Regional Rep at foothillsncriid@gmail.com. A 10% administration fee will be assessed on ALL refunds. No refunds, except for medical emergencies, will be issued past January 9, 2024. Please Note: We are not responsible for participants' technology or ability to access the workshops, aside from NCRID providing the link. No refunds will be issued due to technological problems on the part of the participants. As this workshop is presented via ASL, participants should plan to join this workshop via video.

NCRID reserves the right to cancel within 30 days of the program, with a full refund to participants, due to low enrollment.

Non-discrimination Policy: NCRID is providing this workshop as an opportunity for safe, respectful learning and will not permit harassment, discrimination, or horizontal violence based on another's comments, questions, schema, race, color, religion, gender, gender expression, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other protected class.,

Continuing Education Units: NCRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities.

This Professional Studies program is offered for 0.2 CEUs at the selected Content Knowledge Level:

Little/None Some Extensive Teaching

Registration: Register on the NCRID website here.

Questions? Please email NCRID Foothills Regional Rep at foothillsncriid@gmail.com.

